

Disclose

by Joey Terranova

This encounter had an interesting twist Fulfilling - Raw -Strange and erotic
You left something behind -

 A secret not obvious to the naked eye
But strangely enough worth my time
My time to live on the edge and give you a try

Such eager hungry looking faces That parade through the door Leaving you drenched quivering for just a tiny bit more

Extraordinary connections
Reeling in a tired bliss
The groping - Heaving and heavy breathing Maybe if you're lucky you can top or get topped with a kiss

That moment in time was so grand No worries - No cares while being transported You're wet - You sweat - We came - He went Mind is spinning in relief - I'm so drained and totally spent!

Contact - Conflict - Alarm bells strange as it seems

My mind in a fog in so many directions -

This trick was a dream

What were you thinking when you slipped from the wagon?

Haven't you learned yet with so many years of connections?

Were you Crazy? Off your rocker?

Or just want attention?

Attention is what you will get if the question isn't asked

And before you know it the pain will come and put your life to the task

Life will be forever changed once you shower

Wash off all the sweat

Put back on your clothes

The surprise will come later when you think back

Hey did we ever disclose?

Didn't I ask before giving you me? I'm sure

I did

I can't remember if I'm the one who was so carelessly stupid and sloppy?

Maybe it was “your” mind that was closed off Important information not worth the small cost

Now I’ve inherited the complex beast
All of it’s heads - Multiple personalities and greed

Planted - Planted firmly in me the seed of all seeds

When asked your suppose to disclose as scary as it can be

But maybe your next host luck will prevail
The next sweaty trick won’t be as stupid as me

Protection - Reflection - Education - Stipulations
- Regulations

Off limits to stupidity and invincibility

Before you ever enter the door the hormones must be in check

Pre-flight before take off or you’re a train headed for a wreck

Life crashing to the floor

Suppose - Propose - Never let your guard down Honest and up front

When it’s time to disclose
